DIAMOND DEALERS CLUB OF SOUTH-AFRICA RE-ELECTS EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE

Antwerp : March 5, 2012- The Diamond Dealers Club of South Africa has announced that all members of its Executive Committee have been re-elected for a new term.

According to the statutes of the Diamond Dealers Club of South Africa, elections are annually to select serving board members. In the recent elections, all the DDC board members were re-elected.

The board of directors of the Diamond Dealers Club of South Africa will be composed as follows:

- Ernest Blom, Chairman
- Lionel Noach, Vice Chairman
- M. Ellis, Treasurer
- Board members:
- Manny de Amorim
- Mark Reichman
- Sarel Snyman
- Trevor Temkin
- David Woolf
- J. Nortje
- M.V. Moosa
- N. Parag

Ernest Blom has chaired the Diamond Dealers Club of South Africa from 2003 to date. Blom is currently the vice-president and an honorary lifetime president of the WFDB. He is also a founding member of the World Diamond Council. Lionel Noach was elected vice chairman last year.

"With this re-election of its board of directors, the DDC of SA has confirmed its steady course. I am sure that it will continue to play an active and visible role in the WFDB and will continue to advance its interests," WFDB president Avi Paz stated.

The World Federation of Diamond bourses protects the interests of affiliated diamond bourses and their individual members. It furthers the amicable settlement or arbitration of differences and disputes between the individual members of the affiliated bourses and between the affiliated bourses. In furtherance of this object, it is the aim of the world federation to participate in the promotion of world trade and to encourage the establishment of bourses, with the view of eventual affiliation of all centres where diamonds are actively traded
