

Press Release

World Federation of Diamond Bourses

26 May 2014

It was with great sadness that we learnt of the senseless killing of three people and serious wounding of another, the victims of this attack are from Israel, Belgium and France. The attack took place at the Jewish Museum in Brussels, Belgium on Saturday the 24th May. Security around all Jewish institutions in Belgium has been raised to the highest level following the shooting, authorities confirmed.

We the WFDB condemn all forms of violence anywhere in the world and our prayers and thoughts go out to the victims' relatives and loved ones.
